PARTICIPANT DECLARATION
TOBOGGAN HILL PARK

Activities can be dangerous

Taking part in any of the activities in the park are adventurous experiences and are not without some risk. Whilst Toboggan Hill Park provides equipment or these activities, the experience does involve a certain level of ability in balance and control.

If you are unwell you may not be able to participate in all the activities.

You should not participate in some or all activities if you are suffering from or have suffered from any of the following medical conditions, epilepsy, dizziness or loss of balance, vertigo (fear of heights), angina or any heart condition, severe or uncontrolled asthma, visual impairment (other than wearing of glasses or contact lenses), depression, any limb, back injury or other physical or mental impairment that affects your ability to balance, control, climb or undertake physical or mental exertion.

Don't participate if you may become unwell

You should not participate in the activities if you reasonable suspect that your health and well being will be put at risk by participating. This includes if you are taking medication for any of the above ailments, if you are pregnant or recovering from recent surgery.
